

Personal Items Disclosure

Please read carefully and sign each form. Signatures are required for the vehicle to be accepted.

- Items such as guns, drugs, ammunition, medication, pepper spray, blades over six inches long, bow and arrows, bones, antlers, pelts, fresh foods, plants, alcohol, and many other items are illegal to be transported through Canadian borders and are not permitted to be left inside of the vehicle during transport.
- Customers are required to do their own research on restricted items prior to packing their vehicles for transport. A few suggested websites are:
www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/travel/id_visa/kbyg/prohibited_restricted.xml www.ezbordercrossing.com/the-inspection-experience/clearing-customs/prohibited-items/www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca/publications/dm-md/menu-eng.html
- Campbell Boyz Trucking, LLC and all other carriers accept no responsibility for any personal effects left inside of the vehicle during transport.
- Customers are required to unlock all tool boxes, safes, containers, etc. prior to transport.
- Shipping to Alaska (Northbound customers only) : Filled out and signed personal items form and disclosure, proof of weight of items, and vehicle registration have been left on passenger seat or sent via fax or email to Campbell Boyz Trucking, LLC prior to transport.
- Shipping from Alaska (Southbound Customers only) : Filled out and signed personal items form and disclosure, proof of weight of items, and vehicle registration have been provided to the Campbell Boyz Trucking, LLC office at check in.
- We allow no more than 100 pounds of personal items to be left inside of the vehicle, and all items must be boxed. Proof of weight of items may be provided by weighing your items on a bathroom scale and marking the weight clearly on each box as well as on the Personal Items Form. No items are permitted in the front seats, above the window lines, or blocking the driver seat from sliding all of the way back. Items are not permitted to be packed in the bed of trucks.

If the stated criteria is not met the customer is aware that the vehicle is subject to rejection until the customer is able to meet all required criteria, and Campbell Boyz Trucking, LLC has space available to transport the vehicle. Payment of all storage fees incurred due to vehicle rejection are the responsibility of the customer.

Signature:_____ Date:_____.

Personal Items Form

Please list the items packed inside of the vehicle in the space provided below.

Description of items:	Weight of each box:

I, _____,

(Please Print Name)

certify that there are no guns, drugs, ammunition, medication, pepper spray, alcohol, bow and arrows, fresh foods, plants, pelts, antlers, bones, or any other items the Canadian border may deem illegal to cross the border inside of my vehicle.

Signature: _____ Date: _____.